Simon Furman has finished the script for comic portion of the UK astf Magazine #13, and has shared a little of the plot on his blog. This will be the final issue dealing with the Twilight's Last Gleaming story arc, as the Autobots and humans mount a last-ditch effort to finally defeat the Decepticons! However, fans of this new alternate Movie-Verse shouldn't worry, Simon Furman will be sticking with this Universe for the next story arc as well!
