Sure there were specialty store sightings before this, but now we have a sighting from a larger chain store. That's right, Walmart Canada once again pulls waaayyy out ahead of the competition by starting to stock Universe Prowl, Sunstreaker and Tankor! Allspark member Ruler Bulon stopped by to say that he bought all three at a Walmart in Chatham, Ontario. So for our friends up north, looks like it's time again to go new figure hunting!
