An anonymous source over at Unicron.com has tidbits for Season 3 of Transformers Animated that is best recommended to be considered as spoilerish rumors for the time being unless actual confirmation comes in. Best taken with a grain of salt, in other words. Head writer Marty Isenberg has said at SDCC 2008 that the hopeful date for Season 3 is Spring 2009. As for the "information": certain characters may make a return, one might be introduced, and several more maybes.
