For those of you eagerly awaiting your Sideswipe, Silverstreak or Ironhide fix, you may want to keep an eye on Walmart.com. The website has listed the three as "Out of Stock Online" which actually means that they don't have them in stock yet, but should be expecting them soon! And the kicker? They're included in the Roll Back that dropped Universe and Movie Deluxes to $7.77! Although, there's no guarantee that the Roll Back will last until they're stocked, and the whole thing could end up as one big tease.
