We've had a number of images for this FansProject set come out as of late, but do you still have lingering questions about it? Like how exactly the trailer connects to the cab? Or maybe you just want a better look at the packaging and the sculpt? Well, then HT-TF.com has a gallery for you! One of its users has posted several images of the fan-made add-on to Classics Ultra Magnus, so that you can try to answer some of your questions about the set. Or maybe just stare at it for a while!
