After a slight delay, the Transformers Club wallpapers week 5 is now up! Featured in the three wallpapers for week 5 are Topspin, the Seacons (which gives us a good look at their bio card art) and Shattered Glass Optimus Prime! Club members can find out what all the Decepticons are screaming about by logging into the Members Only area and clicking the wallpapers week 5 link. And check back later this week for week 6 of the wallpapers!
