CBS' ET's Mark Steines has hopped over to Holloman Air Force Base and White Sands Missile Range to catch behind-the-scenes filming of Revenge. So far, Holloman and White Sands have been hush-hush - save the few sneak peeks we've gotten - but Mark gets the whole exploding basket. Check your local listings for time and channel!

Catch what he had to say on preparation here and don't forget to tune in on ET come Tuesday!
