Transformers Animated lead character designer Derrick J. Wyatt has answered to some comments posted on his blog after showing the early artwork of Prowl. Regarding Prowl's sidecar, "The side car is coming! It looks totally perfect too. Hasbro and Takara did a fantastic job on that one." Season 3 hasn't been fully announced is still quite a ways off and regarding on Beachcomber, "I worked on Beachcomber's design with designer Irineo Maramba. He was going to be a total hippy slacker type. Unfortunately his speaking part in the early part of season 3 got cut for time. So, at this point, we don't know if he will even be in season 3 or not."
