Transformers fans who reside in Japan should start checking their mailboxes, as it appears that Henkei! Thundercracker is now shipping. Thundercracker was a ganbo store exclusive to Japan, and was released nearly simultaneously with Henkei! Skywarp who was a Toy Hobby exclusive. Both figures feature modified versions of Henkei Starscream's packaging. Unlike his Hasbro produced counterpart, Henkei Thundercracker features a color scheme more closely based on his G1 animated appearance than that of the original figure. Once again, the original Decepticon Plane Trio is Complete!
