The Universe of the Transformers is vast, and populated by many characters. Their universe is a large tapestry, made up of the stories and points of view of countless experiences that serve the larger whole. These are some of those stories. This is: Transformers: MOSAIC.

9/29/08 Mosaic:

- A Nasty Surprise, where the Constructicons have the shock of their lives.
- Old Youth, on Ratchet facing an old "friend".
- Hero, of a farewell to someone who lit their darkest hour.
- Danceformers, why the Autobots should invest in tuned mass dampers.
- Un-Discipline, in which Prowl isn't the only un-disciplined one on base.
