Hasbro has sent over a few new images of upcoming Transformers products, and boy are they interesting! First up are images of Animated Jetfire and Jetstorm in their Entertainment/Comic Pack. Then there's images of the repaint of Leader Class Ultra Magnus in his Roadbuster colors. Last, and probably most interesting, is Universe Superior. Or should that be Revenge of the Fallen Superior? The packaging image shows off the ROTF packaging in all its glory, including cyberglyphs and an evil-ish face that you can read whatever you want into!
