Heads up, Allsparkers! Paramount's PR team has sent us 8 passes that each admit two people to a one day early RSVP screening of astf on Tuesday, June 23rd at 7:30PM in sunny Hollywood, CA! If you want to snag one for yourself and a guest, you've gotta move fast! Just post a Transformers-themed Haiku in this thread by noon Pacific time on June 18, Thursday (TOMORROW), to enter. The staff will select 10 qualifiers, 8 of which will receive the RSVP Invitation and 2 will be runners up with a small prize for participating. Please see our discussion thread for all the details, and good luck!

Update We truly would like to get these passes out to the fans, so anyone from the LA area send in your name and address and the first 6 entries will get a pass! That's right nothing fancy, you just have to send your name and address in a PM to ChessPieceFace (he's the one with the passes). The new deadline will be 3pm PST. We'll post the winners later today.
