TheTransformers.net were kind enough to share the London Press Conference with Michael Bay, Shia LaBeouf, Megan Fox, and John Turturro. Topics on astf ranged from getting help from the Jordanian royalty (both the king and prince were big fans of the first film, according to Bay) when they filmed around Petra, Jordan; "leap frogging" from city to city; the Arabian team members worried about Turturro on the pyramids; and more!Here's part 1 of the press conference, part 2, part 3, part 4, and part 5!

Kudos to TheTransformers.net!
