Awhile back, we reported on USA Today's 'Design the Ultimate' Transformer contest. The entries are in, and the voting has begun! Of particular note is Transformers Film Designer and IDW Artist Josh Nizzi's entry, for the new movieverse design Longbow, an Autobot who turns into an Apache Helicopter! See Longbow here, and all the other great submissions for the contest here! Don't forget to vote for your favorites by clicking 'Recommend' at the bottom of each picture!
