Yep, you read right! Simon Furman's written a script for Million Hero's "Transformers Generations 2009" volume 3 with Guido Guidi at art duties! In a "great minds think alike" scenario and according to Simon, his 2-page story "employed elements from the two previous manga strips (in Transformers: Generations 2009 #1 & 2), to such an extent we were able to fuse everything together in a way that continues and wraps up that storyline." If you have volume 1 with Hidetsugu Yoshioka's "Ligier's Rebirth" (which you can read here at Hydra's TF Pulp) and volume 2 with Naoto Tsushima's "Starscream's Ambition", you'll have to wait till August 17 to see what Simon and Guido's contributed!

Read at Simon's blog and don't forget to check Million Hero for their updates on TF Generations 2009! Sound off at DrSpengler's thread!
