The best altmode ever has now shown up in-package! TF08 has put up pics of the twins, Skids and Mudflap, in their package! Here's their bio:

Autobot Skids and Mudflap have always been close, but this is a little ridiculous. Equipped with experimental combination technology, they use their newfound ability to help other Autobots hunt the Decepticons wherever they hide. Unfortunately, yhey have so much difficulty hanging onto each other in vehicle mode that they spend more time struggling to stay on the road then they do fighting.
