Two new astf figures from Takara Tomy have been revealed! The figures are movie-accurate repaints of Voyager Class Demolisher and Deluxe Class Rampage; Demolisher is mostly white with a red stripe and lettering, while Rampage is red! It's not yet known if this means these figures will be sold exclusively in Japan or if Hasbro will release similar figures.

Joining the two Constructicons are Voyagers Bludgeon and Recon Ironhide, Deluxes Dirge, and NEST Bumblebee and Scout Class Brakedown. Click here to see the image, and then discuss them here!
