Transformers artists Trevor Hutchinson has posted an update on his deviantArt page explaining what he's currently up to:

- More covers for the 5-part "Last Stand of the Wreckers" series for IDW. I'm really enjoying how these have turned out and I think I prefer them to some of the AHM work I've done.
- Design work for unannounced Transformers book for IDW.
- A cover design for a special unannounced retailer incentive... thing for IDW
- Promotional materials for Melbourne-based depression-era "Rhythm Revue" show
- Secret project working with Shane McCarthy
