Hasbro's laying it on with the Revenge of the Fallen Scout Repaints! The molds for Dead End and Knockout are both getting their second redeco! Knockout is once again a Decepticon in red (Reverb is quite annoyed that someone stole his schtick) while Dead End is now an Autobot sporting a bright orange deco... why, it must be ROTF Wheelie! TFCToy's got the figures on Ebay, so see the Knockout repaint here , and Wheelie here!

Wait a second. There already is an ROTF Wheelie! And let me tell you, he's not gonna like this!
