

Hasbro Reports Higher Than Expected Quarterly Profit

Contributed by Onyx Minor
Monday, 19 October 2009

Hasbro has posted a higher than expected quarterly profit, according to a report from Reuters. The article expands to say that Hasbro has had an advantage over competition such as Mattel due to the Transformers and G.I. Joe movie lines, and the company is expected to continue to do well due to upcoming projects such as the Iron Man 2 and Toy Story 3 movie lines. Go here to check out the original article.