Easily the most anticipated new toy for the tail end of the astf line, more and more is being revealed about the elusive Leader-Class Starscream figure! Yizhi of TF08 sent TFW's S250 an image of the back of Leader Starscream's box! It shows off some of the toys new features, including arms that Transform into his movie guns, pop out weapons, electronic speech, and jet engine noises, among others! And frankly, he looks awesome. Check it out at TFW, and then discuss it on our boards! Also be aware that the special features of the ROTF Walmart Disk include a look at a prototype of this figure, so if you're grabbing it, be sure to check that out!
