While this may not be "news", it is definitely an interesting find! Those of you who have bought astf on DVD or Blu-Ray, grab your remote and get ready to press the pause button as Devastator tries sucking up Mudflap and Skids. In the foreground, check out the newspaper clinging to the same pipe the Autobot Twins are holding onto. The front page article reads "Mysterious Robot Spotted"...The robot in question is none other than Shockwave himself!
