Good ol' Simon Furman has updated his blog with a Script (W)rap and it's about "Nefarious"! While directly following after astf, Nefarious' story starts from Tales of the Fallen #5, Ravage's story in regards to his status, but it's not necessary to have read TotF #5 to get the full scope. Nefarious involves a global conspiracy where various Bots and Cons are involved (a particular Con is back), as well new incoming mechs that also wind up in the conspiracy that includes "Project: Nefarious". And both factions aren't going to be happy campers.
