The-Arker.com has posted two new images for an upcoming astf product. The figure in question is the ROTF Legends Class Devastator that Takara Tomy had released a few months back and that Hasbro suggested a US Release for at Botcon. Now it looks like we have definitive confirmation of said Hasbro release! Opposed to the Takara Tomy EZ Collection releases, Hasbro's will be released in one big gift set. So no hunting down individual Constructicons will be necessary!
