In an interview with DenOf Geek.com, actor Tony Todd revealed that he may be coming back for the third Transformers movie due out in 2011:

Are you involved in Transformers 3 do you think?

Yes.

Definitely?

You want to quote me? What I was told last month, yes. But that's Hollywood!

Is there anything you can tell us about it? It's got to be worth a try.

No! There's more of it! [Laughs, starts thumping desk and making explosion sound effects]. Something along those lines!

Will he still be playing the Fallen? Or will we see a new role for him? Time will tell! Click here to read the full interview!
